The Routledge Handbook of Historical Archaeology

Edited by Charles E. Orser, Jr., Vanderbilt University, USA, Susan Lawrence, James Symonds and ANDRES ZARANKIN

The Routledge Handbook of Global Historical Archaeology is designed to offer readers an up-to-date introduction to the rapidly growing, worldwide field of historical archaeology. Whereas the field was once restricted to the United States (largely as an anthropological pursuit) and Great Britain (generally as a historical endeavor called 'post-medieval archaeology'), today's historical archaeologists live and conduct important research in places only dreamt of twenty years ago. Given the ever-developing nature of the discipline, the contributors to this handbook will concentrate most of their discussions on archaeological achievements made since about 2006.
